

We Make Choosing The Perfect Paint Color Easy!™

Franchise Information

About Us

America's Color Consultants, LLC (ACC) helps clients select paint colors and finishes that are fresh and beautiful. Our franchisees are part-time, home-based independent paint color consulting firms not affiliated with any paint manufacturer.

ACC grew from a successful local business which started in Arlington, Virginia in 2007. The business model has been refined over the years and is now a franchise offering. Paint choices available to homeowners have never been greater, and proper color coordination helps a room really come together to show off furniture, rugs, and art. We help homeowners choose the perfect paint color from any line of paint available on the market. Our experienced, knowledgeable and creative consultants guide clients to the perfect paint color choice or through an extensive home renovation project. We consult with our clients on either an hourly or per-project basis.

Customize your color consulting franchise by adding additional services such as:

 Faux finishes, stenciling & murals

 Small painting jobs

 Interior design services

The Concept

We believe the customer and their complete satisfaction is integral to success and company growth. And now, through our franchise offering, we are selecting partners to join America's Color Consultants, LLC as a franchise owner.

A partnership with us is more than a simple franchisor to franchisee relationship! We view the relationship with our partners as a group of color consultants banding together to help promote the industry and each other. With a protected territory of up to a 20 miles radius or a 300,000 population, our franchise partners will have a large market. There are NO competitors within the franchise segment of paint color consulting. Sharing industry insights and open communication, with a pricing structure that most middle income Americans can afford, our partners begin color consulting in their communities with lots of support and little competition.

Our Partners

 Do you have an artistic eye?

 A personal sales ability?

 High motivation?

 Confidence?

 Team player skills?

We are looking for specific franchise partners who have an eye for color and exceptional people skills. If you have a home office, car and basic computer skills, you can launch your own part-time America's Color Consultants franchise. A low initial investment and low overhead... means faster profits as you build your business.

We believe this is an ideal career for stay at home parents wanting to re-enter the work force, those seeking self-employment or a career change, and young art professionals looking for a way to produce consistent income and maintain flexible work hours. Our ideal consultant has a professional background in marketing, art, or design; a degree in the arts; interior design or color selection experience; or sales experience in home furnishing retail business. This is an excellent opportunity to combine your skills with a partner's skills for the perfect franchise team. Grow to full-time as you grow your business.

Our Support

America's Color Consultants, LLC is committed to guiding franchisees into making good decisions for their franchise and for their customers.

We provide our franchisees with extensive training at our headquarters before they begin operating an America's Color Consultants franchise. From color theory to business practices, we cover it all. As our franchisees work to build their business, we will be there every step of the way empowering them with our recipes for success! We offer advice on how to market the business and obtain clients, and how to provide the best service possible to build a strong clientele. We provide ongoing support in the form of a yearly training workshop to update our franchisees on trends in the design industry, as well as providing a forum for our consultants to meet and support each other. ACC provides advertising and social media support for the franchise, and the founders are always available for personal coaching and advice.
